WELCOME to AUSTIN

The road of happy destiny is often not a straight one. The twists and turns of our journey take us to places we never imagined in the company of people we would never have met otherwise.

Along the way we experience things wonderful, perplexing, challenging, funny and ... WEIRD. People on the path with us are striving to become the people their Higher Power would have them be—even if that makes them seem unusual or even WEIRD.

Though the common solution of OA's 12 Steps and Traditions binds us together, we are not cut from the same cloth. Some of us are soft colors and quiet music, while others are rhinestones and honkey-tonk ballads. There is room for us all in OA.

What is “keeping recovery weird” about? Life on life's terms. Accepting each other as our Higher Power made us, and remembering not to take ourselves too seriously. Laugh and be well. “We are not a glum lot ... We absolutely insist on enjoying life”

And life is sometimes best described by the word WEIRD.
